

Repeated Encounters in Spanish

	Personal information	Family	Food	Weather	School Subjects	Animals	Skills incorporated into each lesson
3	Basic instructions and asking names	Basic vocabulary for family members	Basic food vocabulary	Simple weather vocabulary and phrases	Basic vocabulary for school items and subjects	Basic animal vocabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Continuous introduction of thematic vocabulary related to daily life, school, and cultural aspects. · Reinforcement of previously learned vocabulary with increased complexity. · Gradual introduction of grammatical concepts, including noun gender, pluralization, adjectives, and verb tenses. · Application of grammar in speaking and writing tasks. · Progression from simple phrases to complex sentences and dialogues. · Emphasis on fluency and confidence in spoken Spanish. · Regular practice through stories, songs, and dialogues to develop understanding of spoken Spanish. · Tasks designed to enhance active listening skills. · Exploration of various aspects of Spanish-speaking cultures, including festivals, traditions, and historical figures.
4	Expanding on personal details (age, likes)	Describing family relationships and using adjectives	Express likes/dislikes and food preferences	Using weather vocabulary in sentences	Expressing opinions about subjects	Describing animals using adjectives
5	More complex sentence structures for sharing personal information	Discussing family activities and relationships in greater detail	Discussing meals and healthy eating	Describing weather in different contexts e.g. seasons	Describing school routines and schedules	Discussing pets and animal habitats
6	Discussing future plans and aspirations	Exploring family traditions in Spanish speaking countries	Exploring traditional dishes from Spanish speaking countries	Discussing the impact of weather on activities and traditions	Exploring educational systems in Spanish speaking countries	Investigating endangered species and conservation efforts	